

HamConBe

26 APRIL 2025

KU Leuven – Campus Arenberg III “Quadrivium” Celestijnenlaan 200, 3001 Leuven

The HamConBE 2025 Conference is Belgium's premier forum for engineers, scientists, radio amateurs, researchers, and students to exchange ideas on advancements in radio technology and beyond.

3 nontechnical talks on Amateur radio

- 20 years of Digital Voice
- Ham radio as a tool
- Radio sports, the competitive side of ham radio

4 technical talks on Radio Technology

- Mains pollution by electronics generated harmonics, consequences and mitigation
- The issues with SDR
- Tracking of the Asian hornets with BLE and SDR
- Meshtastic

3 talks on Radio Technology in Space and Science

- Ham radio beacons aboard PocketQube satellites for investigating sporadic E in the ionosphere
- Radioastronomy: an introduction
- Introduction to weather radar: principles, challenges and applications

1 Workshop

- Building a TinyGS Station

Admission to HamConBe is free, but registration is mandatory.
Register here:

Powered by the UBA